Individual Test Skeleton

Note: Requirements are the numbered points

User

1. The user needs to be able to communicate with the bot through the chat
   Test procedure
      - Enter the chat with the bot active and type in &help
      - Go through the instructions listed of the latest features and ensure the bot accepts all the commands
2. The bot needs to be able give the user the ability to search through a variety of different options to retrieve information
      - Type in &help and follow the instructions for viewing orders
         - Commands are
            - &order bought
            - &order sold

Owner

3. The owner needs to be able to use the chat to interact with and input trade data with simple commands
      - As the Discord server owner or moderator, type &help and follow through with following the instructions of all the latest commands

4. The bot needs to be able to allow the owner to delete any incorrect entries
      - As the Discord server owner, type in &bought and &sold
         - Each will give a list of necessary parameters which will need to be included to ensure that they are placed into the records